

Head Teachers Message

Dear Parent and Carer,

Our first full week back at school has seen our learners get off to a great start. Children are settling into their new classes and already discussing new and previous learning with their teachers.

Obviously, this week will also be remembered in future years as the week where we joined together to show our respect to Queen Elizabeth. Today the children came in to the hall for a special assembly where we watched the memorable clip of her majesty having tea with Paddington Bear, had 96 second silence and then spoke about how rainbows signify a new beginning, referring to the pictures of the rainbows appearing over the Royal Residents. We then listened to God Save the King as we begin to recognise the significant change as we welcome in King Charles III.

As we go through these days of national mourning we will fly the flag at half mast and continue to reflect on the processes that will occur at this historic time.

In other news I would like to congratulate all those pupils who achieved their music medals with Mrs Grocock and hope that your passion for playing an instrument continues. Well done!

Please be aware that there has been a case of chickenpox at school and also some sickness. Please can I remind you that your children should attend school everyday but if they are unwell contact with the office should be made by 8.30am where a message should be left. Please ensure all your arbor accounts have the correct contact details for those who are contactable in emergencies.

I hope you have a good weekend with your families and look forward to welcoming the children back on Monday.

Kind regards
Mr Gilbert

What are you reading?

This week we have been looking at the book Rain before rainbows.

This book has been a wonderful book to start our term as it speaks of how courage and help from our good friends, the sunshine will always break through as in the midst of the rain, rainbows can be hard to see.

This learnt itself well to the conversations we have had today after the sad news of the death of Her majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

We hope you are enjoying using our new reading diaries.

We have limited spaces available at our amazing Pre-School

We offer funded and non-funded child care for children aged from 2  $\frac{1}{2}$
